BLACK HISTORY MONTH

CELEBRATE THE AFRICAN AMERICAN EXPERIENCE THIS MONTH AND BEYOND

INDEPENDENT LENS

Cooked: Survival by Zipcode Monday, February 3, at 10:00 p.m.

The effects of the July 1995 Chicago heat wave claimed the lives of more than 700 mostly poor, elderly and African American residents. This story of life, death and the politics of crisis in an American city reveals the less newsworthy but long-term issues of pernicious poverty, social isolation and racism.

FINDING YOUR ROOTS

Slave Trade

Tuesday, February 11, at 8:00 p.m.

Henry Louis Gates, Jr. journeys with film director Ava DuVernay, actor S. Epatha Merkerson and musician Questlove to the unexpected places where their ancestors were scattered by slavery, upending their notions of African American history.

INDEPENDENT LENS

Always in Season

Monday, February 24, at 10:00 p.m.

In August 2014, African American teenager Lennon Lacy was found hanging from a swing set in Bladenboro, N.C. His death was ruled a suicide, but Lennon's mother, Claudia, believes her son was lynched. Claudia's fight for justice intersects with other communities striving to acknowledge the victims of lynching, repair the damage and achieve reconciliation.

AMERICAN MASTERS

This Grammy-nominated film is the definitive account of the man behind the legend. With full access to the Miles Davis Estate, the film features never-before-seen footage, including studio outtakes from Miles Davis' recording sessions, rare photos and new interviews.

A TAX-SAVING WAY TO HELP WPSU...

See Your Generosity in Action

If you are 70½ years old or older, you can take advantage of a simple way to benefit WPSU and receive tax benefits in return. You can give up to $100,000 from your IRA directly to a qualified charity such as WPSU without having to pay income taxes on the money.

Why Consider This Gift?

- Your gift will be put to use today, allowing you to see the difference your donation is making.
- You pay no income taxes on the gift. The transfer generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, so you benefit even if you do not itemize your deductions.
- If you have not yet taken your required minimum distribution for the year, your IRA charitable rollover gift can satisfy all or part of that requirement.
