Calling all PBS KIDS!

Become a sustaining member of WPSU and get ready for a summer of adventure!

When your family makes a gift of $6 per month, we'll send to you, as our thanks, a backpack full of materials that your family can use with WPSU's virtual summer camp!

Your gift will help to make educational children's programming possible for all of our friends across the WPSU viewing area.

To join in, visit wpsu.org/summeradventure for more information!

Premieres Monday, June 1, at 8:00 a.m.

Hero Elementary is a school for budding superheroes, where kids learn to master their innate powers, like flying and teleportation, while exploring science along the way. Hero Elementary aims to give children ages 4 to 7 the tools to solve problems by thinking and acting like scientists and igniting their natural curiosity and empathy.

WPSU CELEBRATES LGBTQ

Pride Month

American Experience: Stonewall Uprising

Friday, June 5, at 9:00 p.m.

Explore what happened when police raided the Stonewall Inn, a gay bar in New York City on June 28, 1969. The streets erupted into violent protests that lasted for six days and marked a major turning point in the modern gay civil rights movement.

AMERICAN MASTERS: Terrence McNally

Tuesday, June 9, at 9:00 p.m.

Explore four-time Tony-winning playwright Terrence McNally's six groundbreaking decades in theater. The film delves into McNally's pursuit of love and inspiration, LGBTQ activism, triumph over addiction, and the power of the arts to transform society.

Prideland

Friday, June 12, at 9:00 p.m.

Follow queer actor Dyllon Burnside on a journey to discover how LGBTQ Americans are finding ways to live authentically and with pride in the modern South.

The Lavender Scare

Friday, June 12, at 10:00 p.m.

The untold story of how tens of thousands of homosexual federal workers were either fired or denied employment in the 1950s, stirring outrage in the gay community and starting an LGBTQ rights movement with an unlikely hero at the forefront.
