- 104 school districts

LOCAL IMPACT

WPSU's local services have a deep impact on our 24-county service area.

WPSU-TV

"I love WPSU programming. I live in another coverage area but prefer your programming especially the gardening shows. They are far and few between on other stations I'm happy to join WPSU as a member"

WPSU-FM

"We are longtime avid NPR listeners who just moved to State College last year from CT. WPSU was the first radio station that we programmed into our car radios. Thanks for providing all the programs that we rely on plus I really loved listening to WPSU's Folk Show last summer while I gardened"

Cozy Corners

"I have had the pleasure of observing a puppet show, excitement from a little one seeing the table change colors, and listening to a Mama read a story to her child at the table. A really nice cozy corner for visitors!"

WPSU is proud to support viewers and listeners across 24 counties in central Pennsylvania as a trusted source for news, entertainment, and education. We are able to provide these services to the community through four television channels; public radio; three public radio livestreams; and WPSU-TV and WPSU KIDS livestreams, websites, and events.

This report offers a brief glance at our impact across the region in 2023. As a station, and through collaborations with our community partners, volunteers and advisory board, we fulfill our mission to spark discovery, enrich learning, and strengthen community through vibrant public media.

I. CREATING MEANINGFUL CONTENT

WPSU is thoughtful and intentional about producing local content that reflects the diversity, culture, history, and relevant issues facing our community. We are committed to providing a welcoming and inclusive environment for people to explore, learn, and share ideas.

II. ENGAGING WITH COMMUNITIES

We are always looking for opportunities to connect with Penn State and community partners. In 2023, more than 200 organizations collaborated with WPSU, resulting in outreach to 28,650 people:

- 11 online cooking classes
- 48 community engagement events
- 8 documentary screenings
- 2 parades and festivals
- 6 station tours

III. PROVIDING DIGITAL ACCESS

WPSU distributes its content through many digital platforms to maximize reach, accessibility, and awareness.

- WPSU-TV and WPSU KIDS livestreams
- WPSU-TV, PBS KIDS, and FM apps
- NPR One app and The PBS App
- WPSU-FM, Jazz, and News/Classical livestream
- WPSU YouTube channel

IV. EMPOWERING STUDENT SUCCESS

Every year, through the generosity of supporters, endowments, and grants, WPSU is able to hire interns and graduate assistants from among students attending the various Penn State colleges.

Among these interns is James Engel, who has been working with WPSU as a radio news intern for the last three semesters. During a speech about working with WPSU James said:

“I’ve had the opportunity to work in sophisticated studios, meet fantastic people, and develop a voice of my own on the radio. I’m working with professionals, who are some of the best journalists in the area. And I’m confidently working with equipment and technology that I was entirely ignorant of a couple months ago... WPSU has given me confidence that my skills are worth something and that I can use them professionally.”

In 2023, WPSU was proud to collaborate with the following organizations.

YOUR LEARNING NEIGHBORHOOD

Learning at Home, in School, and in Your Community

Working with our PBS partners across the state, we continued to align educational resources with PBS programming to supplement student learning at home, while supporting teachers and caregivers with resources for the classroom.

In 2023, we reached 15,214 children, caregivers, and educators through:

- Educator Webinars
- Eventapalooza
- Family Play & Learn Events
- Grab-and-Go Bags
- Multicultural Children's Festival
- Parades
- Parent Webinars
- Presentations
- Virtual Field Trips

WPSU and PBS LearningMedia

In 2023, WPSU resources on PBS LearningMedia were viewed more than 158,000 times by educators across the country.

New WPSU resources were added to PBS LearningMedia to be accessed by more than 15 million registered educators:

- Your Vote Matters: They Work for You!
- Mission: Materials Science, in partnership with Penn State Center for Nanoscale Science

Virtual Field Trips with Lending Library Kits

WPSU produced kits for The Arboretum at Penn State designed around Seasonal Phenomena and aligned with new PA STEELS standards.

Kits include materials to support seasonal occurrences:

- Winter: Germination
 - Seed Square (1)
 - Garden Planning and Germination Worksheets
- Spring: Watershed
 - Foil Pans (8) and Roll (1)
 - Spray Bottles (2)
 - Food Dye Tablets
- Summer: Pollinators
 - Multi-colored Plates (20) and Poms (5 colors)
 - Velcro Sticks (32)
 - Pollinator Profiles (1 class set)
 - PA Butterflies & Pollinators Pocket Guide (1)
- Fall: Changing Leaves
 - Trees of Pennsylvania Guide (1)

Media Literacy Initiative

In alignment with co-producing the News Over noise podcast, WPSU launched a News Literacy Educator Webinar Series that covered the topics:

- Does News Find Me?
- We Are What We Read
- News Engagement for the Civically Engaged
- Share Your Story

WPSU led a Digital Literacy Workshop with Readiness Institute high school students in Altoona and Johnstown, PA.

WPSU also hosted U.S. Media Literacy Week webinars with NAMLE (National Association for Media Literacy Education), in partnership with the Donald P. Bellisario College of Communications at Penn State.

Youth Poetry Contest

As an extension of WPSU's Poetry Moment, the education team opened submissions for the inaugural poetry writing contest for students in grades K-12.

Select entries were published online and WPSU-FM aired the recordings of the winning poems, read by the student authors, during a special Youth Poetry Moment episode. 250 poems were submitted from 29 school districts across 16 central PA counties.

Grab n' Go Bags

In 2023, WPSU distributed 1,500 "Think BIG with WPSU" bags to students attending summer enrichment programs throughout 24 counties of central and northern PA.

These bags included STEM materials and activities that fostered family engagement and student learning around creative thinking and problem solving.

Visit wpsu.org/learn to explore all of our education resources and programs.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

WPSU Reads

This project is grant funded by the National Endowment for the Arts Big Read program, and Barnes & Noble Education.

WPSU’s goal for the program is to enrich our community through storytelling and sharing knowledge of Native American cultures through our network of community partners.

WPSU received two grant awards to support WPSU Reads, an initiative that connects with libraries and community partners to develop programming around a selected book. With the book selection of “There There” by Tommy Orange, WPSU supported the following programs:

- WPSU Reads website with curated resources and community events
- The Indigenous Peoples’ Resistance Day Rally at Old Main Patio
- The Feast at HUB-Robeson Center
- Centre Film Festival at The State Theater
- Book Discussions at S.W. Smith Memorial Library and Mount Jewett Memorial Library

WPSU’s event table pictured at a local library featuring “There, There” by Tommy Orange for discussion

World Kitchen

WPSU host Tamra Fatemi invites guest chefs to demonstrate how to make dishes from around the world. In 2023, World Kitchen featured Vietnamese, Iranian, Egyptian, Afghani, Persian, Honduran, Italian, and Bolivian cuisines.

In November and December, World Kitchen partnered with Penn State Humphrey Fellows to bring new and unique dishes never before seen on World Kitchen to the show.

World Kitchen host Tamra, and guests Larry and Maria Terry create Baleadas, in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month.

READY TO LEARN INITIATIVE

In 2023, WPSU received a $150,000 grant from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and the Public Broadcasting Service to fund the 2020-25 Ready To Learn initiative that will expand the reach of PBS KIDS early learning resources to communities in the Moshannon Valley.

The goal of the Ready To Learn initiative is to connect children’s media and learning environments to help build key skills for success in school and life, including functional literacy, critical thinking and collaboration, as well as showing them career opportunities in age-appropriate ways.

Over the next two years, contingent on congressional funding, WPSU will collaborate with the Moshannon Valley YMCA, CenClear and Central Intermediate Unit 10 to create a Learning Neighborhood that fosters a community-wide culture of learning at home, in the neighborhood, and within local systems and spaces.

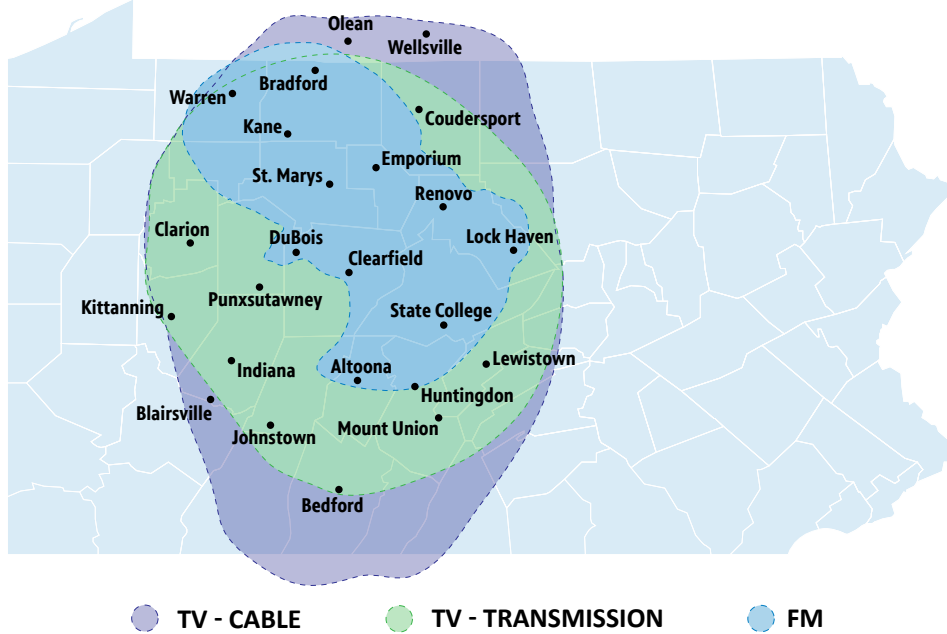

Community Programs

WPSU aimed to strengthen community through partnerships. One of the ways WPSU achieved this was with outreach within communities.

- Family Service Agency Gathering for service providers
- Learning Grief Workshop for community agencies
- Cozy Corners located in 5 locations across central PA
- Station Tours
 - We Are Alum
 - Pennsylvania Association of Educational Office Professionals
 - Hickory Grove Elementary School
- Community Events
 - Reedsville 3rd Fridays
 - Belleville Market
 - Constitution Day Centre County
 - 3 Dots Downtown Pugh Street Shutdown
 - All Sports Museum Trick or Treat Night
- Centre County Grange Fair Parade

WPSU creates community stories to share on television, radio, and online that bring a slice of life from central Pennsylvania to your family room, computer, and personal devices.

WPSU-TV and WPSU-FM Coverage Map

WPSU invited community and Penn State groups to participate in Eventapalooza, a family and community focused event held at WPSU Studios in October 2023.

In 2023, WPSU raised funds to expand the resources and activities offered at our PBS KIDS Cozy Corners in locations across northern and central Pennsylvania.

WPSU invited families, community, and Penn State groups to participate in the Multicultural Children's Festival held at WPSU Studios in April 2023, to showcase the diversity of those who live within central Pennsylvania.

A new WPSU original series, "Culinary Connections" tells the stories of people and places in our area that use food to connect with the world around them.

"Our Town: Big Valley" premiered on WPSU-TV in September 2023, featuring stories about the people, places, and history of the region.

The WPSU digital series "Year-Round Gardening" gives basic gardening tips throughout the year and features instructional clips from Penn State Extension Educators and Master Gardeners.

WPSU continues to update the Virtual Field Trips website, which explores Fort Roberdeau in Altoona, Shaver's Creek Environmental Center in Petersburg, the Centre County Recycling and Refuse Authority in State College, Elk Country, and WPSU production facilities.

WPSU staff and volunteers traversed our service area to take part in multiple community parades throughout central and northern Pennsylvania.

WPSU-TV

"I've been waiting all week for this show. Thank you for the local programming that reflects our region's talent. WPSU is a treasure."

"I very much enjoy our local PBS channel from Masterpiece to this old house, NOVA, news shows, and EVERYTHING in between. Thank you for all you do for all of us out here."

WPSU-FM

"I truly rely on your services daily. The absolute BEST music news and entertainment available. I also appreciate the balance of reporting done in newscasts and look forward to more local news soon to be included."

"Keep up the excellent programming. I like the new Local Groove Presents... creating a link between WPSU radio and TV."

CULINARY CONNECTIONS

"Hi Tamra! I just wanted to let you know that I saw the WPSU piece on the Good Day Cafe recently, and you looked so nice and you were SO good in it! You are a natural! And I think you smiled the whole time! It was a great and informative show, thanks in part to you!"
– Barbara J. Arkans, Assistant Registrar, Penn State World Campus

NEWS ROUNDUP

"This weekly newsletter is excellent and so informative for what I need to think about and prepare for over the next several days. And the article that Emily Reddy does with Matt Jordan defines why there is such a need for 'public broadcasting' to be funded and widely available to all."
– Sara Songer

EDUCATION SERVICES

WPSU Field Trips: "It was fabulous! The kids were interested and had lots of questions. It was great, it went smoothly, everything was well done."

Family Agency Resource Gathering: "Thank you SO MUCH for a great event. I can't wait to get all the information that was shared - especially WPSU offerings. I knew about some but am eager to check out others. The grief programs/projects are excellent. I think I've seen them all. Thanks for the goodies as well. Hope your grant gets renewed so we can do more of these."

Play & Learn Watch Party: "My teachers told me it was wonderful! I hope we can do this again next year!"
