

Hands On

Story Chain

Work with a sibling, friend or grown up to create a story together. Begin the story with “once upon a time” and take turns going back and forth adding a new sentence to the story.

True cooperation means a joint effort—a give and take that is mutually satisfying. To develop a cooperative spirit in children, we need to help them understand how our requests and rules are good for everyone.

Ask

Have you ever worked with a friend to do something?
What was it?

How can we help each other when we're playing or working?

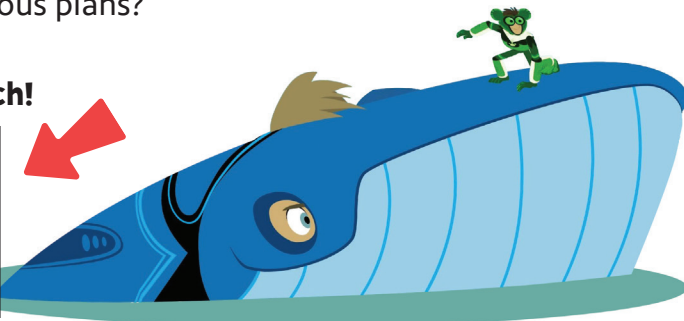

If you're building with a friend and you both want to use the same block, what could you do?

Wild Kratts: Our Blue and Green World

The Kratt brothers disagree on what's better: blue oceans or green forests. Can the gang get Martin and Chris back in sync in time to save Planet Earth from Zach and Paisley Paver's villainous plans?

Together We Can

When we cooperate,
we all share a goal
We each have a role
Collaborate
When we collaborate,
we share our ideas
To think about what we'll make
Now let's create
We got to work together,
got to work together
Until we get it right
We got to work together,
got to work together
And we can take our time
Cooperate and collaborate
